NOTICE OF NON-RENEWAL OF APPOINTMENT:

Part-time, visiting, or temporary short-term appointments with explicit terminal dates of one academic year or less terminate at the expiration of the term without notice.

For those employed year-to-year on a fiscal or academic year basis, notification of non-renewal of appointment at the end of the first year of service shall be given not later than March 1 if the appointment expires at the end of that year or three months in advance if the one-year appointment terminates during the academic year. Notification of non-renewal of appointment at the end of the second year of appointment shall be given not later than December 15 if the appointment expires at the end of the year or six months in advance if the appointment expires during the year. Notification of non-renewal of appointment after more than two years of service shall be given at least 12 months before expiration of appointment.

NOTICE OF RESIGNATION:

Notice of resignation should be given early enough to obviate serious inconvenience to the University. If a faculty member desires to terminate an existing appointment or to decline a renewal in the absence of a notice of non-renewal, the faculty member shall give written notice of not less than three months if the individual's rank is instructor or assistant professor, and not less than four months if the individual's rank is higher, before the end of regular duties during an academic year (exclusive of a summer session) or thirty days after receiving notification of terms of an appointment for the coming year, whichever date occurs later. However, the faculty member properly may request a waiver of this requirement in a case of hardship or in a situation where the faculty member would otherwise be denied substantial professional advancement.
