

FOLKLORE & MYTHOLOGY MINOR CORE COURSE IN FALL 2008

adviser for the minor: Prof. Micahel Jones - mjones@uky.edu - POT 1065

CLA 135 GREEK & ROMAN MYTHOLOGY

- 001 TR 12:30- 1:45PM STAFF
- 002 MWF 10:00-10:50AM STAFF
- 401 MW 7:00- 8:15PM VISONA (Paolo.Visona@uky.edu)

This course familiarizes the student with important characters, themes, and stories of Classical mythology. Equally important is developing an understanding of the nature and purpose of myth, and the ability to derive message and meaning from myth. The course draws upon wide and varied fields of knowledge including literature, history, linguistics, religion, philosophy, and psychology. USP AND COLLEGE HUMANITIES REQUIREMENTS

The following Folklore & Mythology Minor electives are offered in Fall 2008

AAS 200 Introduction to African-American Studies
ANT 220 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology
ANT 242 Origins of New World Civilization
ANT 301 History of Anthropological Theory
APP 200 Introduction to Appalachian Studies
APP 300 Topics in Appalachian Studies*
ENG 232 Literature and Place*
ENG 233 Literature and Identities*
ENG 261 Survey of Western Literature from Greeks to Renaissance

ENG 271 New Testament as Literature
GWS 201 Introduction to Women's Studies in the Arts and Humanities
LAS 201 Introduction to Latin America
LIN 317 Language and Society*
MAT 247 Dress and Culture
MUS 300 History of Jazz
MUS 301 Appalachian Music
SOC 350-003 Topics in Sociology: Sociology of Religion

 approved for the minor when the topic of the course is appropriate – as determined by the minor adviser*

